THE ARCHIVE

EVERY MATCH YOU HAVE EVER PLAYED.

Play-Cricket has kept your scorecards for years and nobody has ever seen them. The archive turns any match in that history into a post: the cover, then both innings in full, every batter, every bowler, the extras and the fall of wickets. Typing one of these out by hand takes an evening, which is why no club does it.

SECOND INNINGS

EVERY SEASON.

Not just this one. Anything Play-Cricket has kept for your club, back through the seasons, is a post waiting to be made.

BOTH INNINGS, IN FULL.

Every batter and how they went, every bowler's figures, the extras, the fall of wickets. Nothing summarised away.

ONE MATCH, ONE TAP.

Give it a match and the three slides build themselves, in your crest and your colours, like every other card.

One match, three slides, from a season nobody has opened since. Any game in the club's history, drawn in the colours the club uses now, and the reason a member who scrolls past a scoreline will stop on this one.

YOUR DESIGN

IT CARRIES YOUR CREST, OR IT IS NOT WORTH POSTING.

Nothing here is a stock template with a logo dropped in the corner. Your crest, your colours, your ground and your sponsors are set up once and every card is built from them. Two clubs, same system, and you would not know they were related.

CHAMPIONS RELEGATION

MEADOWBANK STAY 2ND, NINE POINTS OFF TOP

MEADOWBANK CC

Second, with the drop marked in red.

YOUR CREST

Set in the header band of every card, at the size it was drawn to be read at, never squashed into a corner.

YOUR COLOURS

Taken off the playing kit and applied to headers, rules, chips, highlight rows and the verdict stamp.

YOUR SPONSORS

Along the footer of every card that goes out, which is the part a sponsor actually pays for.

Every card on the previous page belonged to one club in navy and amber. These belong to two others. Same system, same weekend, three identities, and the only thing that changed was a crest, a set of colours and a ground name.

THE TOOLS

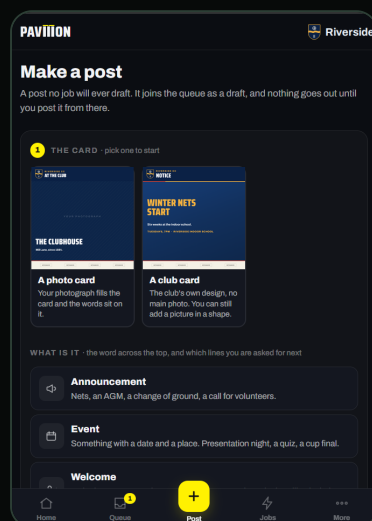

EVERY JOB THE FEED NEEDS, SITTING ON ONE SCREEN.

Jobs that read Play-Cricket and draft a finished post. A queue that holds everything until somebody has read it. The squad, the selections, the archive, and a post you write yourself when no job covers it. All of it from a laptop in the clubhouse or a phone at an away ground.

ON A LAPTOP

Home, the queue, the jobs, the squad and the season archive, all in one place.

ON A PHONE

The same queue, thumb sized.

RUN A JOB

Fixtures, results, tables and any match in the archive, drafted from Play-Cricket on one tap.

MAKE A POST

Anything a job will never draft: nets, an AGM, a welcome, a thank you, on your own templates.

THE QUEUE

Nothing goes out unread, and nothing goes out twice. Post now, or set a time and leave it.

WHAT IT COSTS

ONE SETUP. THEN PICK HOW MUCH WE DO.

£500

One off

SETUP

Play-Cricket connected, your season archive connected, your templates drawn to your crest and colours, and the whole thing wired together and proved on a real weekend of your fixtures before a monthly penny is due.

- Fixtures, team sheets, results and tables draft themselves
- Player of the week: your captains get a link, the card builds from their pick
- Write any other post yourself, on your own templates
- Every past season, back through the archive
- Approve and post from a laptop or a phone

MOST CLUBS

ANYTHING ELSE

GETTING STARTED

LIVE INSIDE A FORTNIGHT.

01

SEND THE CREST AND THE COLOURS

A crest file and your playing colours. If you have sponsor artwork, that too. One email is usually enough.

02

WE CONNECT PLAY-CRICKET

Read only, through your club's own ECB key. Fixtures, scorecards, tables and the season archive. Nothing is ever written back.

03

YOU SEE A REAL WEEKEND FIRST

Your actual fixtures, on your actual cards, before anything is posted and before the monthly starts.

04

PICK A PACKAGE AND GO

Move up or down a tier at the end of any month. Start self run for the first half of a season and hand it over when the fixture list gets busy.

In season is April to September. Monthly, cancel at the end of any month. Announcement and clip counts are per calendar month and do not roll over. Anything outside a package is quoted before it starts, so a monthly never quietly turns into a production job.

SEND US YOUR CREST.
WE WILL SEND BACK
YOUR WEEKEND.
